POLICIES FOR THE ORANGE TELEVISION NETWORK

The Orange Television Network will strive to maintain the highest professional standards in program production, content, and television operations. All producers are expected to ensure that the content represents issues fairly, is accurate, and is produced in good taste. The Orange Television Network will adhere to all standing university policies.

All content should comply with the following standards:

- Materials submitted for distribution on the Orange Television Network should be of high ethical standards.
- The Orange Television Network will not distribute obscene or indecent material that is patently offensive. Defamatory content made in a maliciously false context intended to ridicule or degrade persons, departments, programs, or entities will not be shown.
- All programming providers must have permission to use copyrighted material.

For more information on the Orange Television Network guidelines please view the OTN Program Proposals link on the OTN website.

When complete you may drop this off in person, drop into campus mail or U.S. Mail
